

APPRISE PROJECTS 2018-2019

Salary-supported projects 2018-2019

Public Health and Key Populations Pillars

- Project 1 Specimen collection protocols to accompany FF100 enhanced data collection studies
- Project 2 Privileging Aboriginal voices in planning and responding to infectious disease emergencies: design & evaluation
- Project 3a Adaptation of the First Few Hundred Protocol for Infectious Disease Events for Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Populations
- Project 3b ASEAN-Australia Health Security Fellowship Program

Laboratory Pillar

- Project 4 Developing Australasia's serological capability for Viral Haemorrhagic Fevers
- Project 5 Improved detection and characterisation of flaviviruses and their antibodies in humans, animals and mosquitoes

Clinical Research and Infection Prevention Pillar

- Project 6 Short PeRiod IncideNce sTudy of Severe Acute Respiratory Infection (SPRINT-SARI): research preparedness for pandemics
- Project 7 Sentinel Travellers and Research Preparedness Platform for Emerging Infectious Disease (SETREP-ID)
- Project 8 Evaluating video-reflexive methods to improve infection prevention and use of personal protective equipment in Australian hospitals

Ethics Platform

- Project 9 Ethical frameworks for pandemic planning

Internal grants 2018

- Grant 1 Development and evaluation of a CO₂- free system for mosquito-borne disease surveillance
- Grant 2 Influenza sero-surveillance at the animal-human interface: a feasibility study in high-risk groups
- Grant 3 Adaptation of the First Few Hundred Protocol for Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Populations
- Grant 4 Sampling, shipping and serology: a proof of concept study of influenza immunity